

Main table containing race details for 10 horses, including names, jockeys, and performance data. The table is organized into columns for each horse, with rows for various statistics and race results.