

Table with 16 columns representing different race participants and 24 rows of detailed data including names, numbers, and performance metrics.